

Private Label Manufacturing

We are recognized among the industry leading wholesale white label clothing manufacturers and private label clothing suppliers of high-quality apparel and accessories for men, women and children in USA as well as worldwide. We carry out all our private label manufacturing processes in-house and have emerged as the ultimate destination for all kinds of clothes and customized sporting needs at wholesale prices on bulk buying.

We Offer Complete White Label Apparel and Private Label Clothing Manufacturing Services

Working with a team of highly passionate and talented designers and having access to state-of-the-art manufacturing equipment and facilities, we are in a favorable position to offer you all-inclusive wholesale white label clothes and private label clothing services.

Our custom services are for business owners looking to promote their brand through promotional clothing, independent designers launching their own clothing line, sports team managers looking to create new and unique uniforms for their teams, and so on.

1. Do You Design Apparel Based on the Client's Design Specifications?

Exactly according to specified specifications and preferences and make sure that each garment passes through our strict quality standards—and private label clothes.

2. Will The Garments Be Branded with My Company Logo and Care Label?

The garments that you will be receiving will be branded with your logo and care labels as per your wishes. You can choose from various custom clothing options such as dye-sublimation printing, embroidery, and embellishments.

We also offer exceptional labeling services for your convenience. Whether you wish to choose one of our ready-made garments and have it personalized or want us to design something specifically for you, we can satisfactorily serve your interests and offer you the best of products and services.

3. How Can I Place My Custom Order?

We have simplified the order-placing process for the convenience of our esteemed clients. You can submit your design ideas via email or call our 24/7 support team for serious brainstorming sessions. Along with the design, you can even choose the kind of material or fabric that you want as well as the color, print, and style.

4. Can I Get A Sample?

Yes, we are happy to send samples to our clients so that they can see and touch the quality of the material. You can shoot us an email with a request. Once you are fully satisfied and happy with the sample our designers start to design and manufacture it in bulk quantities. If you do not like the sample, you can get in touch with us and we will make the necessary changes (Courier Charges to be applied)

5. What Is the Cost of Placing a Custom Order?

The cost depends upon the number of garments required, the type of fabric used, and the design. You can request a free quote and we will be happy to give you a fair estimate based on your custom bulk order.

6. Why Should You Choose Us?

At Jree Sports, we are a dynamic team and we absolutely love what we do. Our passion is reflected in our great design and the quality of products that we create, consistently.

We are well-known for our dedication, hard work, and commitment and have always delivered bulk orders within the stipulated time.

You would have a wonderful time doing business with us because we offer A to Z OEM and private labeling clothing services.

We believe that the client is always right and our private label custom clothing services revolve around the needs and requirements of our clients.

We like to innovate and are constantly updating and adapting ourselves according to the changing market trends.